Re: Submission of the FY2025 Municipal Court Data Report

Dear Governor Ivey, Attorney General Marshall, President Pro Tempore Gudger, and Speaker Ledbetter:

Pursuant to Act 2022-425, codified at § 12-14-111, Ala. Code 1975, the Administrative Office of Courts is required to submit a report on municipal court activity within six months of the close of each fiscal year. In keeping with that requirement, I am providing the Fiscal Year 2025 Municipal Court Data Report.

This year's report provides a statewide overview of municipal court operations and includes:

- The total number of cases processed by municipal courts in FY2025.
- The total revenue collected, including distributions to the appropriate entities.
- Local expenditures associated with municipal court operations.
- The annual operating budgets of municipal courts.
- The annual operating budgets of the municipalities they serve.

As required by law, the full report, including detailed court-by-court data and a listing of courts that did not submit the required information, is publicly available on the Administrative Office of Courts' website at https://www.alacourt.gov/ under the Home menu, Publications, and then Municipal Court Annual Report.

Please let me know if my office can provide any additional information or assist in further understanding the data presented. We continue to prioritize and promote transparency, accountability, and the effective administration of justice across Alabama's municipal courts.

Sincerely,

Nathan Wilson
Administrative Director of Courts
