

HB94 INTRODUCED

1 HB94
2 5VHYK6M-1
3 By Representative Kiel
4 RFD: State Government
5 First Read: 13-Jan-26
6 PFD: 17-Dec-25

4 SYNOPSIS:

5 Under existing law, the State Auditor is an
6 elected position in the executive branch responsible
7 for monitoring the accounts and records of the 8 Department of Finance and the State Treasurer and 9 maintaining property records of all state-owned,
10 nonconsumable property.

11 This bill would require property managers of 12 state agencies to report loss or theft of certain state
13 property in certain circumstances.

14 This bill would provide an exception to the 15 standard property inventory process conducted by the 16 State Auditor for all Department of Corrections and 17 Department of Youth Services secured facility property
18 that is located behind security bars.

19 This bill would create a new Division of 20 Property Investigations within the Office of the State
21 Auditor to investigate the loss, theft, or damage of 22 certain state property and to demand repayment for the 23 value of lost, stolen, or damaged property due to an 24 act of negligence.

25 This bill would authorize the Attorney General
26 to bring civil action for cases of negligent loss or 27 damage of state property.

28 This bill would authorize the State Auditor to refer to the Attorney General or an applicable district attorney any matter where there is a reasonable belief that a criminal violation has occurred.

HB94 INTRODUCED

This bill would also make nonsubstantive, technical revisions to update the existing code language to current style.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED
AN ACT

Relating to the State Auditor; to amend Sections 36-16-1, 36-16-3, 36-16-6, and Section 36-16-8, as last amended by Act 2025-70 of the 2025 Regular Session, Section 36-16-10, and Section 36-16-11, as last amended by Act 2025-68 of the 2025 Regular Session, Code of Alabama 1975; to add Section 36-16-1.1 to the Code of Alabama 1975; to provide further for the duties and authorities of the State Auditor; to provide an exception to the standard inventory process for any Department of Corrections and Department of Youth Services secured facility property located behind bars; to create a Division of Property Investigations within the Office of the State Auditor and authorize the division to carry out certain investigations of lost property and make referrals to the Attorney General or district attorneys; to authorize the Attorney General to bring civil action to recover amounts in certain circumstances; to update the code to reflect changes

HB94 INTRODUCED

Section 2. Section 36-16-1.1 is added to the Code of Alabama 1975, to read as follows:

§36-16-1.1

(a) For purposes of this section, the term "state property" refers to any state property that meets or exceeds the threshold value, as defined in Section 36-16-8.

(b) There is created within the Office of the State Auditor the Division of Property Investigations which shall be responsible for carrying out investigations described in this section. The division may initiate an investigation upon a request of the State Auditor, the Property Inventory Control Division, or, upon receiving notice of acts of negligence in the loss, theft, or damage of state property, whether through its website or through another channel of communication.

(c)(1) The Division of Property Investigations may investigate any instance of lost, stolen, or damaged state property, including instances where the loss is marked as "non-negligent" by the custodial agency. If in carrying out a full investigation, including the procuring of evidence, the division confirms that the loss, theft, or damage was not negligent, the division shall issue a finding of "non-negligence."

(2) If the division finds that the loss, theft, or damage was caused by negligence or willful neglect, the State Auditor may compel the offending public official or public employee to pay the value of the lost, stolen, or damaged property, and if such amount is not recovered, the State Auditor shall certify the facts and amount due to the Attorney General. The Attorney General may bring civil action in the name of the state against the employee.

(d) Governmental entities, including any agency or board of the state or political subdivision thereof that is audited by the State Auditor, shall cooperate with and provide assistance to the Division of Property Investigations by providing necessary information to allow the division to carry out its investigations in a timely manner.

(e) The Division of Property Investigations shall refer to the Attorney General or the appropriate district attorney any matter where there is a reasonable belief that a criminal violation has occurred.

Section 3. This act shall become effective on October 1, 2026.
