8 SYNOPSIS: Under current Alabama law, there is no 9 statutory framework for the recognition of 10 foreign-country money judgments. Instead, 11 recognition is governed under common law by the 12 doctrine of comity.

13 This bill would provide for the Alabama
14 Uniform Foreign-Country Money Judgment Act.

15 This bill would codify the doctrine of 16 comity. The bill would provide a court procedure 17 for the enforcement of foreign-country money 18 judgments; address burdens of proof of the parties; 19 revise the grounds for denying recognition of 20 foreign-country money judgments; and establish a 21 statute of limitations for recognition actions.

22
23 A BILL
24 TO BE ENTITLED
25 AN ACT
26

1 Relating to the legal recognition by Alabama courts 2 of money judgments issued by a foreign country; to provide for 3 the Alabama Uniform Foreign-Country Money Judgment Act; to 4 provide for a court procedure for recognizing those judgments;
5 to address burdens of proof of the parties; to revise grounds 6 for denying foreign judgments; and to establish a statute of 7 limitations for recognition of foreign judgments.

8 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA:

9 Section 1. This act may be cited as the Alabama
10 Uniform Foreign-Country Money Judgments Recognition Act.

11 Section 2. In this act:

12 (1) "Foreign country" means a government other than:

13 a. the United States;

14 b. a state, district, commonwealth, territory, or 15 insular possession of the United States; or 16 c. any other government with regard to which the 17 decision in this state as to whether to recognize a judgment 18 of that government's courts is initially subject to 19 determination under the Full Faith and Credit Clause of the 20 United States Constitution.

21 (2) "Foreign-country judgment" means a judgment of a 22 court of a foreign country.

23 Section 3. (a) Except as otherwise provided in 24 subsection (b), this act applies to a foreign-country judgment 25 to the extent that the judgment:

26 (1) grants or denies recovery of a sum of money; and

1 (2) under the law of the foreign country where 2 rendered, is final, conclusive, and enforceable.

3 (b) This act does not apply to a foreign-country
4 judgment, even if the judgment grants or denies recovery of a 5 sum of money, to the extent that the judgment is:

6 (1) a judgment for taxes;

7 (2) a fine or other penalty; or

8 (3) a judgment for divorce, support, or maintenance, 9 or other judgment rendered in connection with domestic 10 relations.

11 (c) A party seeking recognition of a foreign-country 12 judgment has the burden of establishing that this act applies 13 to the foreign-country judgment.

14 Section 4. (a) Except as otherwise provided in 15 subsections (b) and (c), a court of this state shall recognize 16 a foreign-country judgment to which this act applies.

17 (b) A court of this state shall not recognize a 18 foreign-country judgment if:

19 (1) the judgment was rendered under a judicial 20 system that does not provide impartial tribunals or procedures 21 compatible with the requirements of due process of law;

22 (2) the foreign court did not have personal 23 jurisdiction over the defendant; or

24 (3) the foreign court did not have jurisdiction over 25 the subject matter.

26 (c) A court of this state need not recognize a 27 foreign-country judgment if:

1 (1) the defendant in the proceeding in the foreign 2 court did not receive notice of the proceeding in sufficient 3 time to enable the defendant to defend;

4 (2) the judgment was obtained by fraud that deprived 5 the losing party of an adequate opportunity to present its 6 case;

7 (3) the judgment or the claim for relief on which 8 the judgment is based is repugnant to the public policy of 9 this state or of the United States;

10 (4) the judgment conflicts with another final and 11 conclusive judgment;

12 (5) the proceeding in the foreign court was contrary 13 to an agreement between the parties under which the dispute in 14 question was to be determined otherwise than by proceedings in 15 that foreign court;

16 (6) in the case of jurisdiction based only on 17 personal service, the foreign court was a seriously 18 inconvenient forum for the trial of the action;

19 (7) the judgment was rendered in circumstances that 20 raise substantial doubt about the integrity of the rendering 21 court with respect to the judgment; or

22 (8) the specific proceeding in the foreign court 23 leading to the judgment was not compatible with the 24 requirements of due process of law.

25 (d) A party resisting recognition of a 26 foreign-country judgment has the burden of establishing that a

1 ground for nonrecognition stated in subsection (b) or (c) 2 exists.

3 Section 5. (a) A foreign-country judgment may not be 4 refused recognition for lack of personal jurisdiction if:

5 (1) the defendant was served with process personally 6 in the foreign country;

7 (2) the defendant voluntarily appeared in the 8 proceeding, other than for the purpose of protecting property 9 seized or threatened with seizure in the proceeding or of 10 contesting the jurisdiction of the court over the defendant;

11 (3) the defendant, before the commencement of the 12 proceeding, had agreed to submit to the jurisdiction of the 13 foreign court with respect to the subject matter involved;

14 (4) the defendant was domiciled in the foreign 15 country when the proceeding was instituted or was a 16 corporation or other form of business organization that has 17 its principal place of business in, or was organized under the 18 laws of, the foreign country;

19 (5) the defendant had a business office in the 20 foreign country and the proceeding in the foreign court 21 involved a claim for relief arising out of business done by 22 the defendant through that office in the foreign country; or 23 (6) the defendant operated a motor vehicle or 24 airplane in the foreign country and the proceeding involved a 25 claim for relief arising out of that operation.

26 (b) The list of bases for personal jurisdiction in 27 subsection (a) is not exclusive. The courts of this state may 1 recognize bases of personal jurisdiction other than those 2 listed in subsection (a) as sufficient to support a 3 foreign-country judgment.

4 Section 6. (a) If recognition of a foreign-country 5 judgment is sought as an original matter, the issue of 6 recognition shall be raised by filing an action seeking 7 recognition of the foreign-country judgment.

8 (b) If recognition of a foreign-country judgment is 9 sought in a pending action, the issue of recognition may be 10 raised by counterclaim, cross-claim, or affirmative defense.

11 (c) The party seeking recognition is required to 12 provide the court with a certified copy of the judgment, and 13 if not in English, an English translation which complies with 14 the requirements of Alabama law.

15 Section 7. If the court in a proceeding under 16 Section 6 finds that the foreign-country judgment is entitled 17 to recognition under this act, then, to the extent that the 18 foreign-country judgment grants or denies recovery of a sum of 19 money, the foreign-country judgment is:

20 (1) conclusive between the parties to the same 21 extent as the judgment of a sister state entitled to full 22 faith and credit in this state would be conclusive; and 23 (2) enforceable in the same manner and to the same 24 extent as a judgment rendered in this state.

25 Section 8. If a party establishes that an appeal 26 from a foreign-country judgment is pending or will be taken, 27 the court may stay any proceedings with regard to the 1 foreign-country judgment until the appeal is concluded, the 2 time for appeal expires, or the appellant has had sufficient 3 time to prosecute the appeal and has failed to do so.

4 Section 9. An action to recognize a foreign-country 5 judgment must be commenced within the later of the time during 6 which the foreign-country judgment is effective in the foreign 7 country or 5 years from the date that the foreign-country 8 judgment became final, conclusive, and enforceable in the 9 foreign country.

10 Section 10. In applying and construing this uniform 11 act, consideration must be given to the need to promote 12 uniformity of the law with respect to its subject matter among 13 states that enact it.

14 Section 11. This act does not prevent the 15 recognition under principles of comity or otherwise of a 16 foreign-country judgment not within the scope of this act.

17 Section 12. This act applies to all actions 18 commenced on or after the effective date of this act in which 19 the issue of recognition of a foreign-country judgment is 20 raised.

21 Section 13. This act takes effect January 1, 2013.
