8 (b) Any general law enacted pursuant to this 9 amendment authorizing the recall of elected state officials
10 shall contain at a minimum the following provisions:

11 (1) The qualified electors of the state or any

23 sufficient number of signatures have been obtained within the 24 90-day period, the Secretary of State shall call a recall
25 election for the sixth Tuesday following the determination.

1 (4) The incumbent shall continue to perform the 2 duties of the office until the recall election results are 3 officially declared.

4 (5) Other candidates may file for the office in the 5 manner provided by law for special elections, provided that no
6 primary elections may be held.

7 (6) For the purpose of this amendment, a recall
8 election shall be conducted in the same manner as other 9 special elections.

10 (7) The incumbent or other person who receives the 11 highest number of votes in the recall election shall be 12 elected for the remainder of the term.

13 (8) After one petition and recall election, no
14 further recall petition may be filed against the same officer
15 during the term for which he or she was elected.

16 (c) Grounds for initiating a recall petition shall 17 include any of the following during an incumbent's term of 18 office:
