8 SYNOPSIS: This bill would propose an amendment to the 9 Constitution of Alabama of 1901, that would provide 10 that no person may be elected to either house of 11 the Legislature for more than three full 12 consecutive terms. The amendment would provide that 13 an election to either the Senate or the House of 14 Representatives for at least two years would be 15 equivalent to the election for a full term in that 16 respective body. The amendment would provide that 17 service in the Senate and service in the House of 18 Representatives prior to November 2014 would not 19 disqualify, in whole or in part, a person from 20 service in that respective body following that 21 date.

22
23 A BILL
24 TO BE ENTITLED
25 AN ACT
26

1           To propose an amendment to the Constitution of 2           Alabama of 1901, to provide that (1) no person may be elected
3           to the Senate for more than three consecutive terms of office
4           in the Senate and no person may be elected to the House of 5           Representatives for more than three consecutive full terms in 6           the House of Representatives, (2) an election to the Senate
7           and an election to the House of Representatives for at least 8           two years would be equivalent to the election of a person for 9           a full term in the respective body, and (3) service in the 10          Senate and service in the House of Representatives prior to 11          November 2014 would not disqualify, in whole or in part, a 12          person from service in the respective body following such 13          date.

14         BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA:

15                 Section 1. The following amendment to the 16                 Constitution of Alabama of 1901, as amended, is proposed and 17                 shall become valid as a part thereof when approved by a 18                 majority of the qualified electors voting thereon and in 19                 accordance with Sections 284, 285, and 287 of the Constitution
20                 of Alabama of 1901, as amended:

21                                 PROPOSED AMENDMENT

22                 No person may be elected to the Alabama Senate for 23                 more than three full consecutive terms. No person may be 24                 elected to the Alabama House of Representatives for more than 25                 three full consecutive terms. An election to either the Senate 26                 or the House of Representatives for at least two years shall

1 be equivalent to the election of a person for a full term in 2 the respective body. Notwithstanding the foregoing, service in 3 the Senate prior to November 2014 shall not disqualify, in 4 whole or in part, a person from service in the Senate
5 following that date, and service in the House of 6 Representatives prior to November 2014 shall not disqualify, 7 in whole or in part, a person from service in the House of 8 Representatives following that date.

9 Section 2. An election upon the proposed amendment
10 shall be held in accordance with the provisions of Sections
11 284 and 285 of the Constitution of Alabama of 1901, now
12 appearing as Sections 284 and 285 of the Official 13 Recompilation of the Constitution of Alabama, 1901, as 14 amended, and in accordance with the election laws of this 15 state.

16 Section 3. The appropriate election official shall 17 assign a ballot number for the proposed constitutional 18 amendment on the election ballot and shall set forth the 19 following description of the substance or subject matter of 20 the proposed constitutional amendment:

21 "Proposing an amendment to the Constitution of 22 Alabama of 1901, to provide that no person may be elected to 23 the Senate of Alabama for more than three consecutive terms
24 and no person may be elected to the Alabama House of 25 Representatives for more than three consecutive terms.
