ENROLLED, An Act,

Relating to Madison County; to provide that the Sheriff of Madison County, at his or her discretion, may under certain conditions provide a retiring detention officer with a commemorative badge or a commemorative badge and a firearm.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA:

Section 1. Any individual employed by the Office of the Sheriff of Madison County as a detention officer who has served as a Madison County detention officer for a minimum of 10 years, who retires under the Retirement Systems of Alabama in good standing, and who is at least 62 years of age may receive from the sheriff, without cost, a commemorative badge designed by the office of the sheriff to be paid from the discretionary fund of the sheriff.

Section 2. Any individual employed by the Office of the Sheriff of Madison County as a detention officer who has served as a Madison County detention officer for 25 consecutive years or more and who retires from the office in good standing may receive from the sheriff, without cost, a commemorative badge designed by the office of the sheriff and a commemorative firearm to be designated by the sheriff, costing not more than six hundred dollars ($600), to be paid from the discretionary fund of the sheriff.

1 Section 3. This act shall become effective
2 immediately following its passage and approval by the
3 Governor, or its otherwise becoming law.
