8 SYNOPSIS: This bill would require reports to the 9 Alabama Securities Commission and the Department of 10 Senior Services by certain brokers, agents, and 11 others when the individual has a reasonable belief 12 that financial exploitation of a vulnerable adult 13 has been attempted or has occurred. The bill would 14 authorize limited disclosure to third parties who 15 are reasonably affiliated with the vulnerable 16 adult. The bill would provide that disclosures may 17 not be made to the third party if the qualified 18 individual suspects the third party of the 19 financial exploitation.

20
21 A BILL
22 TO BE ENTITLED
23 AN ACT

24
25 Relating to the protection of vulnerable adults; to 26 require that qualified individuals who reasonably believe that 27 financial exploitation of a vulnerable adult may have

1 occurred, been attempted, or is being attempted, to notify 2 promptly the Department of Senior Services and the Alabama
3 Securities Commission; to authorize the disclosure to third 4 parties in certain instances where a vulnerable adult has some 5 relationship; to prohibit disclosure to the third party if the 6 qualified individual suspects the third party of the financial 7 exploitation; to provide that broker-dealers and investment
8 advisers may delay disbursing funds from a vulnerable adult's 9 account; to provide immunity for administrative and civil 10 actions based on certain actions of disclosure or delayed 11 disbursements; and to require that broker-dealers and 12 investment advisors to comply with certain requests for 13 information.

14 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA:

15 Section 1. This act shall be known and may be cited 16 as the Protection of Vulnerable Adults from Financial 17 Exploitation Act.

18 Section 2. In this act, unless the context otherwise 19 requires, the following words and terms shall have the 20 following meanings:

21 (1) AGENT. The same meaning as in subdivision (2) of 22 Section 8-6-2 of the Code of Alabama 1975.

23 (2) BROKER-DEALER. The same meaning as in 24 subdivision (3) of Section 8-6-2 of the Code of Alabama 1975.

25 (3) COMMISSION. The Alabama Securities Commission.

26 (4) DEPARTMENT. The Department of Senior Services.

27 (5) FINANCIAL EXPLOITATION. Any of the following:

1           a. The wrongful or unauthorized taking, withholding,
2 appropriation, or use of money, assets, or property of a
3 vulnerable adult.

4           b. Any act or omission taken by a person, including 5 through the use of a power of attorney, guardianship, or 6 conservatorship of a vulnerable adult, to either of the 7 following:

8           1. Obtain control through deception, intimidation, 9 or undue influence over the vulnerable adult's money, assets, 10 or property to deprive the vulnerable adult of the ownership, 11 use, benefit, or possession of his or her money, assets, or 12 property.

13           2. Convert money, assets, or property of the 14 vulnerable adult to deprive the vulnerable adult of the 15 ownership, use, benefit, or possession of his or her money, 16 assets, or property.

17           (6) INVESTMENT ADVISER. The same meaning as in 18 subdivision (18) of Section 8-6-2 of the Code of Alabama 1975.

19           (7) INVESTMENT ADVISER REPRESENTATIVE. The same 20 meaning as in subdivision (19) of Section 8-6-2 of the Code of 21 Alabama 1975.

22           (8) QUALIFIED INDIVIDUAL. Any agent, investment 23 adviser representative, or person who serves in a supervisory, 24 compliance, legal, or associated member capacity of a 25 broker-dealer or investment adviser.

26           (9) REASONABLY ASSOCIATED INDIVIDUAL or ASSOCIATED 27 MEMBER. An individual known to the investment adviser

1 representative, broker-dealer, or firm who is reasonably 2 associated with the account.

3 (10) VULNERABLE ADULT. Any of the following:

4 a. A person 65 years of age or older.

5 b. A protected person included and defined in 6 Chapter 9, Title 38 of the Code of Alabama 1975.

7 Section 3. If a qualified individual reasonably
8 believes that financial exploitation of a vulnerable adult may 9 have occurred, may have been attempted, or is being attempted,
10 the qualified individual shall promptly notify the department
11 and the commission.

12 Section 4. A qualified individual that in good faith 13 and exercising reasonable care makes a disclosure of 14 information pursuant to Section 3 shall be immune from 15 administrative or civil liability that might otherwise arise 16 from such disclosure or for any failure to notify.

17 Section 5. If a qualified individual reasonably
18 believes that financial exploitation of a vulnerable adult may 19 have occurred, may have been attempted, or is being attempted, 20 the qualified individual may notify a reasonably associated 21 individual, legal guardian, any third party previously 22 designated by the vulnerable adult, conservator, co-trustee, 23 successor trustee, or agent under a power of attorney of the 24 vulnerable adult of such belief. Disclosure may not be made to 25 a designated third party that is suspected of financial 26 exploitation or other abuse of the vulnerable adult.

1           Section 6. A qualified individual that, in good
2 faith and exercising reasonable care, complies with Section 5 3 shall be immune from any administrative or civil liability 4 that might otherwise arise from such disclosure.

5           Section 7. (a) A broker-dealer or investment adviser
6 may delay a disbursement from an account of a vulnerable adult 7 or an account on which a vulnerable adult is a beneficiary if:

8                   (1) The broker-dealer, investment adviser, or 9 qualified individual reasonably believes, after initiating an 10 internal review of the requested disbursement and the 11 suspected financial exploitation, that the requested 12 disbursement may result in financial exploitation of a 13 vulnerable adult; and 14                   (2) The broker-dealer or investment adviser:

15                   a. Immediately, but in no event more than two 16 business days after the requested disbursement, provides 17 written notification of the delay and the reason for the delay 18 to all parties authorized to transact business on the account, 19 unless any such party is reasonably believed to have engaged 20 in suspected or attempted financial exploitation of the 21 vulnerable adult;

22                   b. Immediately, but in no event more than two 23 business days after the requested disbursement, notifies the 24 department and commission; and 25                   c. Continues its internal review of the suspected or 26 attempted financial exploitation of the vulnerable adult, as 27 necessary, and reports any additional results of the 1 investigation to the department and commission within seven 2 business days after the requested disbursement.

3 (b) Any delay of a disbursement as authorized by 4 this section expires upon the sooner of:

5 (1) A determination by the broker-dealer or 6 investment adviser that the disbursement will not result in 7 financial exploitation of the vulnerable adult.

8 (2) Fifteen business days after the date on which 9 the broker-dealer or investment adviser first delayed 10 disbursement of the funds, unless either the department or the 11 commission requests that the broker-dealer or investment 12 adviser extend the delay, in which case the delay shall expire 13 no more than 25 business days after the date on which the 14 broker-dealer or investment adviser first delayed disbursement
15 of the funds unless sooner terminated by either the department 16 or commission or an order of a court of competent 17 jurisdiction.

18 (c) A court of competent jurisdiction may enter an 19 order extending the delay of the disbursement of funds or may 20 order other protective relief based on the petition of the 21 commission, department, broker-dealer, or investment adviser 22 that initiated the delay under this section, or other 23 interested party.

24 Section 8. A broker-dealer or investment adviser
25 that, in good faith and exercising reasonable care, complies 26 with Section 7 shall be immune from any administrative or

1 civil liability that might otherwise arise from such delay in 2 a disbursement in accordance with this section.

3 Section 9. A broker-dealer or investment adviser
4 shall provide access to or copies of records that are relevant 5 to the suspected or attempted financial exploitation of a 6 vulnerable adult to agencies charged with administering state 7 adult protective services laws and to law enforcement, either 8 as part of a referral to the agency or to law enforcement, or 9 upon request of the agency or law enforcement pursuant to an 10 investigation. The records may include historical records as 11 well as records relating to the most recent transaction or 12 transactions that may comprise financial exploitation of a 13 vulnerable adult. All records made available to agencies under 14 this section are not a public record as defined in any state 15 public records law. Nothing in this section shall limit or 16 otherwise impede the authority of the commission to access or 17 examine the books and records of broker-dealers and investment 18 advisers as otherwise provided by law.

19 Section 10. This act shall become effective on the 20 first day of the third month following its passage and 21 approval by the Governor, or its otherwise becoming law.
