- 1 HJR186
- 2 176085-1
- 3 By Representatives Coleman, Alexander, Carns, Robinson, South,
- 4 Rogers, Drake, Moore (M), Treadaway, Scott, Farley, Givan,
- 5 Mooney, Garrett, Williams (JD), Wadsworth, Faulkner and Todd
- 6 RFD: Rules
- 7 First Read: 22-MAR-16

1	176085-1:n:03/21/2016:MCS/th LRS2016-1250
2
3
4
5
6
7
8	URGING CONGRESS TO ENACT LEGISLATION TO ESTABLISH
9	THE BIRMINGHAM CIVIL RIGHTS DISTRICT AS A NATIONAL HISTORIC
10	PARK AS PART OF THE NATIONAL PARK SYSTEM.
11
12	WHEREAS, the Birmingham Civil Rights district is an
13	area of downtown Birmingham where many significant events in
14	the American Civil Rights Movement of the 1950s and 1960s took
15	place; and
16	WHEREAS, many sites in this area are listed on the
17	National Register of Historic Places, including the A.G.
18	Gaston Motel, Kelly Ingram Park, 16th Street Baptist Church,
19	Bethel Baptist Church, the 4th Avenue Historic District, and
20	the Birmingham Civil Rights Institute; and
21	WHEREAS, despite some change in the early 1950s, in
22	the 1960s, Birmingham was regarded as one of the most
23	segregated cities in the South, including its parks, pools,
24	playgrounds, hotels, theaters, elevators, public housing, and
25	employment and with segregation remaining firmly in place and

1 violence, including some 60 bombings from 1945 to 1963, was 2 frequently used to maintain the status quo; and 3 WHEREAS, in 1963, Reverend Fred Shuttlesworth requested that the Southern Christian Leadership Conference 4 (SCLC) make the City of Birmingham the epicenter for an 5 ambitious new Civil Rights campaign; "Project C," Project 6 7 Confrontation, was designed to eliminate segregation through mass protests, marches, and sit-ins; and 8 WHEREAS, the historic A.G. Gaston Motel was 9 10 headquarters for Project C, a campaign that began on April 6, 11 1963, when police arrested 45 protestors who marched from the 12 A.G. Gaston Motel to downtown Birmingham; and WHEREAS, phase two of Project C began in May of 13 14 1963, with a series of mass protests in which 900 Black youth 15 were arrested by police, overwhelming the capacity of the 16 city's jails; and 17 WHEREAS, in May 1963, youth protestors in Kelly 18 Ingram Park were violently dispersed by police dogs and powerful water cannons; images of the brutal attack spread 19 20 across the country, shocking the conscience of the nation and the world and forcing the Birmingham business community and 21 22 local leaders to agree to release the peaceful protestors, 23 integrate lunch counters, and begin hiring African Americans; 24 and WHEREAS, the September 15, 1963, bombing of the 16th 25

Street Baptist Church violently killed Addie Mae Collins,

26

Carole Robinson, Cynthia Wesley, and Denise McNair, and injured 22 other church members and left significant damage to the church; and

WHEREAS, located just south of 16th Street Baptist Church is the 4th Avenue Historic District, the center for Black-owned businesses which served Black customers during the city's long period of enforced segregation; and

WHEREAS, also located in Birmingham is Bethel
Baptist Church which was led by Reverend Fred Shuttlesworth;
Bethel served as the headquarters for the Alabama Christian Movement for Human Rights from 1956 to 1961 and was a place of refuge for displaced and injured members of the 1961 Freedom
Ride, and the target of multiple bombings in the 1950s and 1960s; and

WHEREAS, Bethel Baptist Church, as well as many other Birmingham churches, such as the New Pilgrim Baptist Church, hosted mass meetings leading up to many of the civil rights marches throughout the city; and

WHEREAS, the students and faculty of Miles College, a historically Black college in the Birmingham area, supplemented the efforts of the local churches; and

WHEREAS, decades after the Civil Rights Movement, the Birmingham Civil Rights Institute opened its doors in 1992; the institute stands at the center of the civil rights historic district, acting as a hub for children, students, adults, and scholars who come to Birmingham to learn about the American Civil Rights Movement; and

WHEREAS, the 27,000 square foot permanent gallery within the institute takes its visitors back to the 1950s when Birmingham was deeply segregated; it serves more than 140,000 individuals each year, encouraging new generations to examine our country's civil rights history, as well as issues such as equality and justice; and

WHEREAS, the preservation, historic interpretation, and management of the Birmingham Civil Rights District, truly a national civil rights historic treasure, will require the collaboration of federal and municipal entities, as well as community organizations to establish the district as a national historic park; now therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA, BOTH HOUSES THEREOF CONCURRING, That we urge Congress to enact legislation to establish the Birmingham Civil Rights District as a National Historic Park as part of the National Park System.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That a copy of this resolution be provided to the members of the Alabama Congressional delegation for further distribution to the members of Congress as an indication of our strong support for the action urged by this resolution.