8 APOLOGIZING FOR THE WRONGFUL INCARCERATION OF 9 ANTHONY RAY HINTON.

11 WHEREAS, Anthony Ray Hinton was one of Alabama's
12 longest serving death row inmates, having spent more than half 13 of his life incarcerated; and after three decades of insisting 14 that he was innocent of the 1985 murders of two men, he was 15 finally freed on April 3, 2015; and

16 WHEREAS, Hinton was convicted of two separate
17 killings of Birmingham restaurant workers, even though there
18 were no eyewitnesses linking Hinton to the crimes, no
19 fingerprints linking him to the scene, and no other physical 20 evidence except for a questionable link between a set of 21 bullets and a gun found in the home in which Hinton shared 22 with his mother; and

23 WHEREAS, for years, Hinton's lawyers have long 24 questioned whether the bullets could be conclusively linked to 25 the weapon, multiple tests of the physical evidence in the 26 case raised serious doubts about whether the bullets were all

1 fired from the same gun, and the ballistic evidence combined
2 with eyewitness testimony from someone who was present at a
3 similar crime with which Hinton was never charged comprised 4 the entirety of the state's case against him; and

5 WHEREAS, Hinton's breakthrough came last year when 6 the United States Supreme Court ruled unanimously that his 7 constitutional right to a fair trial had been violated,
8 finding that Hinton's defense attorney had hired an expert 9 witness who the defense attorney felt was inadequate but who 10 the attorney hired anyway because he did not think he was 11 allowed to spend the amount of money it would take to hire a 12 more qualified expert; and

13 WHEREAS, prosecutors easily discredited the expert
14 witness who had sight in only one eye and could barely see 15 through the forensic microscope; and

16 WHEREAS, after scrambling to find long-lost
17 evidence, prosecutors filed a motion to drop the charges
18 against Hinton, and Jefferson County Circuit Judge Laura Petro
19 dismissed the case; now therefore,

20 BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF 21 THE LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA, That we do hereby apologize for 22 the wrongful incarceration of Anthony Ray Hinton and express
23 our sincere regret that the interests of justice were not 24 served in this case.
