4 ENROLLED, SJR114,

5 POSTHUMOUSLY HONORING THE HAYNES LIFEFLIGHT
6 HELICOPTER CREW FROM SOUTHEAST ALABAMA FOR HEROIC ACTIONS.

7
8 WHEREAS, it is a tremendous privilege to 9 posthumously honor the members of the Haynes Lifeflight Crew
10 from Southeast Alabama that crashed in Goodman, Alabama, on 11 March 26, 2016; and

12 WHEREAS, the Haynes Lifeflight Crew, consisting of 13 the pilot, Chad Hammond, age 29, nurse Stasi Cernadas, age 38,
14 and flight medic Jason Snipes, age 34, was dispatched to pick
15 up Zach Strickland, age 27, who was involved in an automobile 16 accident and needed to be flown to Montgomery; and

17 WHEREAS, after the crew picked up Mr. Strickland, 18 the helicopter crashed approximately a half-mile from the 19 scene of the automobile accident and all four passengers of 20 the helicopter were killed; and

21 WHEREAS, Mr. Hammond, a husband and a father, joined 22 Metro Aviation, Inc., which operated the helicopter for Haynes
23 Ambulance of Alabama, in October 2015, and he was previously
24 an instructor at Cloud 9 Helicopters in Florida; Mr. Hammond
25 attended George C. Wallace Community College and was a 2005

1 graduate of Eufaula High School; he was recognized just three 2 years ago by the Federal Aviation Administration by being 3 included in the FAA Airmen Certification Database, a 4 certification reserved for pilots who have met or exceeded the 5 high educational, licensing, and medical standards established
6 by the FAA; and

7 WHEREAS, Ms. Cernadas was born in Huntsville but 8 reared in Georgia; she was a former flight attendant and a 9 trauma nurse in Montgomery before becoming a flight nurse in 10 September 2015; her father, Javier Cernadas, said that she was 11 living out her dream of being a flight nurse and he conveyed 12 his immense pride in his daughter; and

13 WHEREAS, Mr. Snipes was previously a supervisor with 14 Regional Paramedical Services of Alabama and based in Shelby 15 County before he joined the crew at Haynes; he is described as 16 being a very compassionate person who was an outstanding
17 paramedic; he was known for contacting his patients afterwards
18 to offer words of encouragement or even his favorite scripture
19 to help those patients through their difficult recovery time;
20 although often called a hero for his efforts, he liked to give 21 credit where he thought credit was due, saying that he was not 22 the hero, but that God did His work through Mr. Snipes' hands; 23 and

24 WHEREAS, the members of the Haynes Lifeflight Crew 25 were all valued members of their communities and their

1 commitment to their professions and their ultimate heroic
2 sacrifice will never be forgotten; through the years, their 3 memory will live on in the hearts and minds of those who were 4 fortunate enough to know them, and their inspiring courage and 5 legacy will be forever cherished; now therefore,

6 BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA, BOTH 7 HOUSES THEREOF CONCURRING, That we posthumously honor and
