- 1 HJR395
- 2 186071-1
- 3 By Representatives Mooney, Harbison, Shiver, Hall, Faulkner
- 4 and Williams (P)
- 5 RFD: Rules
- 6 First Read: 02-MAY-17

186071-1:n:04/27/2017:JEC/jec LRS2017-1743 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 RECOGNIZING MEREDITH ANNAN, NOAH FONDREN, KYA 8 EVANGELINE QVALE, RICKY C.H. REYNOLDS, AND KATELYN OLIVIA 9 10 RICHARD ON THEIR SELECTION AS 2017 YOUNG HEROS OF ALABAMA. 11 WHEREAS, highest commendations and congratulations 12 13 are herein proudly presented to Meredith Annan, Noah Fondren, Kya Evangeline Qvale, Ricky C.H. Reynolds, and Katelyn Olivia 14 15 Richard on their outstanding achievement of being selected as 16 2017 Young Heroes of Alabama; and 17 WHEREAS, the Young Heroes Program, presented by 18 Alabama Public Television, recognizes students in grades 9-12 19 who have excelled in academics, given of themselves through 20 public service, overcome adversity, or inspired others through 21 deeds and strength of character; and 22 WHEREAS, Meredith is an accomplished student at 23 Robertsdale High School in Robertsdale, Alabama, whose 24 remarkable work ethic, community service, club participation, job dedication, and high G.P.A., combined with her selfless and caring nature, are a tremendous source of inspiration; she has demonstrated immense courage while providing loving care

25

26

27

for her mother and grandmother, both of whom suffered debilitating, chronic diseases; Meredith, at age 11, became the youngest in her family to face the ravages of rheumatoid arthritis; Meredith's mother, who had received her own diagnosis of rheumatoid arthritis at age 18, developed polymyositis, another autoimmune disorder, and again, Meredith provided loving care for her invalid mother; and

WHEREAS, Noah is an accomplished senior at Cullman High School whose courage, faith, and determination are a tremendous source of credit; he has demonstrated immense strength during his arduous battle in overcoming Anorexia nervosa and self-image and self-esteem issues; he credits his faith in God with delivering him from his life-altering struggles, and he encourages others facing hard situations to trust God to slay their giants with them; a standout member of the school's baseball team, Noah has played in three state championships and was named MVP of the state finals series during his sophomore year; he has signed a letter of intent to play baseball at The University of Alabama; and

WHEREAS, Kya is an accomplished senior at Sparkman High School in Harvest, Alabama, whose vivaciousness, courage, and indomitable spirit are an inspiration to all who know her; she has not let her disability or the hardships faced by her and her family impede her success; despite being born without fully developed arms, Kya drives, types her school assignments, and emails them to her teachers; active in school affairs, she is on the staff of Sparkman's literary magazine,

Silhouette, and has served as an assistant stage manager in the school's drama department; she was Project Manager for Spark Industry Robotics, a student-led simulated workforce; she has contributed her time and talents as a member of the planing committee and volunteer for the Sparkman Arts Festival and regularly volunteers at a local food pantry; Kya has cared for her younger siblings while her parents worked long hours; and

1

2

3

4

5

6

7

8

9

10

11

12

13

14

15

16

17

18

19

20

21

22

23

24

25

26

27

WHEREAS, Ricky is an accomplished senior at Lee High School in Huntsville, Alabama, whose resilience, character, and ambition are a tremendous source of admiration; he has risen above numerous disadvantages and life struggles with grace and optimism; taken from his birth mother, he was labeled as a crack baby and was placed in the child welfare system; his adoptive mother, who was disabled, passed away as he finished his junior year of high school; deciding to stay with Pastor David Lee and his family, in Huntsville, Alabama, Ricky has flourished at Lee High School where he has earned status as a top student, made numerous friends, and engaged in rewarding extracurricular activities; he is a standout member of the school's Theatre Performance Magnet and has acted in the notable roles of Seaweed in Hairspray and Audrey II in Little Shop of Horrors; he earned recognition for "Best Theatrical Performance" by his peers in 2013; a class favorite, Ricky is known for his polite and charming disposition, humility, and unwavering commitment to excellence; and

WHEREAS, active in the community, Katelyn serves as a Relay for Life volunteer and team member, advocates race relations advancements as a Youth Ambassador for the Birmingham Pledge, and reads to primary school children for the Birmingham Read Program; she has organized teen volunteers for Grace House Ministries Benefits; an accomplished student at Hoover High School, she is a member of the Diversity Club, the Future Business Leaders of America, the Multi-Cultural Club, and Undivided, a Christian student fellowship; she earned the Finley Award for Outstanding Character, Hoover High School's highest honor, in both her freshman and junior years; she has used her gymnastics, tumbling, and cheerleading background to help her family by serving as a private tutor and instructor at several gyms; Katelyn is known for her kind, selfless, and generous spirit; and

WHEREAS, worthy role models for countless young Alabamians, Meredith Annan, Noah Fondren, Kya Evangeline Qvale, Ricky C.H. Reynolds, and Katelyn Olivia Richard espouse the meritorious characteristics of the Young Heroes Program, and they are truly deserving of special commendation and praise; now therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA, BOTH HOUSES THEREOF CONCURRING, That Meredith Annan, Noah Fondren, Kya Evangeline Qvale, Ricky C.H. Reynolds, and Katelyn Olivia Richard are honored and commended, and this resolution is offered to them in highest tribute and with heartiest

- 1 congratulations, as well as in sincere best wishes for
- 2 continued success in all future endeavors.