SYNOPSIS: This bill would require the Governor to consult with the membership of all minority caucuses of the Legislature when appointing minority members to the Alabama Commission on Elementary and Secondary Education.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED
AN ACT

Relating to the Alabama Commission on Elementary and Secondary Education; to require the Governor to consult with the membership of all minority caucuses of the Legislature when appointing minority members to the Alabama Commission on Elementary and Secondary Education; and to provide for a contingent effective date.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA:

Section 1. The Governor shall consult with the membership of all minority caucuses of the House of Representatives and the Senate when appointing minority

1 members to the Alabama Commission on Elementary and Secondary
2 Education as provided by the Constitution of Alabama of 1901.

3 Section 2. This act shall become effective
4 immediately following its passage and approval by the
5 Governor, or its otherwise becoming law, contingent on the 6 ratification of a constitutional amendment proposed during the 7 2019 Regular Session, renaming the State Board of Education as
8 the Alabama Commission on Elementary and Secondary Education
9 and providing for the appointment of the members of the 10 commission.
