8 COMMENDING DR. HAROLD A. FRANKLIN, AUBURN
9 UNIVERSITY'S FIRST BLACK STUDENT, ON RECEIVING HIS MASTER'S 10 DEGREE.

11
12 WHEREAS, we take great pride and pleasure in 13 extending highest commendation to Dr. Harold A. Franklin of 14 Talladega, Alabama, who will receive his Master's Degree on 15 May 1, 2020; and

16 WHEREAS, in 1964, Harold A. Franklin became the 17 first African American student at Auburn University; he was 18 admitted under heavy guard and was kept isolated from other
19 students in campus housing; although obstacles of the era
20 prevented Dr. Franklin from completing his degree at Auburn,
21 he went on to graduate with honors from Alabama State
22 University, to earn a Master's Degree in History at the 23 University of Denver, and later pursue a renowned career in 24 Higher Education at many institutions; and

25 WHEREAS, Dr. Franklin taught and held administrative 26 posts at The Alabama State University, North Carolina A and T
27 University, Tuskegee University, and Talladega College from

1 1965, until retiring from education in 1992; in 2001, 37 years
2 after leaving the university, he was awarded an Honorary
3 Doctorate of Arts from Auburn University; he is currently a 4 resident of Sylacauga, Alabama, manager of a mortuary in 5 Talladega, Alabama; and

6 WHEREAS, the Harold A. Franklin Society was founded 7 in 2008, on Auburn University's main campus by Kel Jackson and 8 several other young African American men with only one goal in 9 mind: improving the retention of minority males at Auburn 10 University; the purpose of the society is to enhance the 11 academic, social, and professional development of 12 underrepresented male Auburn University students; and

13 WHEREAS, the Motto of the Harold A. Franklin Society
14 is "Guidance Through Unity"; its focus is to develop a unified
15 coalition of students across Auburn's campus that are serious 16 about improving themselves and the world around them; the 17 members are dedicated to its pledge, "We strive to be leaders 18 that excel in every area of life, and servants who never 19 abandon the communities that have served us"; and

20 WHEREAS, with his tireless dedication and 21 exceptional skills, Dr. Harold A. Franklin personifies the 22 finest qualities of those who enrich the lives of our young 23 people through the noble vocation of education; now therefore,

24 BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF 25 THE LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA, That Dr. Harold A. Franklin is 26 honored and commended in recognition of his outstanding 27 achievements in the field of education and on receiving his

1       Master's Degree, and this resolution is offered to him in 2       highest tribute and deepest appreciation, along with best
3       wishes in all of his future endeavors.
