WHEREAS, in the past 100 years, Alabama Associated General Contractor's members have directed and contributed to projects in the building, highway, heavy, and municipal contractor categories; and

WHEREAS, nearly every city and town in Alabama has benefitted from Alabama Associated General Contractors and its members; and

WHEREAS, in 2019, Alabama Associated General Contractors also played a significant role in launching the Hoover City School System's Skills Trade Academy at the Riverchase Career Connection Center, a program designed to

1 advance youth education and fill worker shortages in the
