4 ENROLLED, SJR18,

5 COMMENDING THE ALABAMA ASSOCIATED GENERAL
6 CONTRACTORS ON CELEBRATING 100 YEARS OF BUILDING A BETTER
7 ALABAMA.

8
9 WHEREAS, the Alabama Associated General Contractors
10 is celebrating 100 years and has brought together qualified
11 construction contractors and industry-related companies
12 dedicated to skill, integrity, and responsibility since 1920; 13 and

14 WHEREAS, in the past 100 years, Alabama Associated 15 General Contractor's members have directed and contributed to 16 projects in the building, highway, heavy, and municipal 17 contractor categories; and

18 WHEREAS, nearly every city and town in Alabama has 19 benefitted from Alabama Associated General Contractors and its 20 members; and

21 WHEREAS, in 2019, Alabama Associated General
22 Contractors also played a significant role in launching the 23 Hoover City School System's Skills Trade Academy at the 24 Riverchase Career Connection Center, a program designed to

1 advance youth education and fill worker shortages in the 2 construction industry; and

3 WHEREAS, the Associated General Contractors were 4 also instrumental in the passage and implementation of the Go
5 Build Program, which spends one million dollars a year
6 promoting the skilled trades to the state's youth; the Craft
7 Training Act is a natural extension to that, generating money
8 to promote education in the skilled trades statewide; both 9 initiatives are funded by the construction industry and are 10 seen as nationwide models for progressive workforce program;
11 now therefore,

12 BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA, BOTH 13 HOUSES THEREOF CONCURRING, That we take great pride and 14 pleasure in commending the Alabama Associated General
15 Contractors and its members on a bright future and the next 16 century of continued success.
