1 "(3) The State Superintendent of Education may not 2 amend the state Every Student Succeeds Act option for 3 including test scores of English language learners enrolled in 4 United States schools. The option provides as follows: For the 5 first year of enrollment, the test scores shall be reported,
6 but the results on both the reading/language arts and math
7 tests shall be excluded from the federal accountability
8 system; for the second year of enrollment, a measure of 9 student growth on both tests shall be included in the federal 10 accountability system; and for the third year of enrollment, 11 proficiency on both tests shall be included in the federal 12 accountability system. Additionally, the option requires 13 English language learners who have successfully left the 14 English language learner subgroup by attaining English
15 proficiency to be included in that subgroup for accountability
16 purposes for four years.
