CELEBRATING THE HISTORICAL SIGNIFICANCE OF THE FIRST ETA MU CHAPTER OF CHI ALPHA EPSILON HONOR SOCIETY IN THE STATE OF ALABAMA.

WHEREAS, Chi Alpha Epsilon Honor Society was founded in 1989 at West Chester University of Pennsylvania to recognize the academic achievements of college students in access and scholar programs, such as TRIO Student Support Services; and

WHEREAS, membership requirements for Chi Alpha Epsilon Honor Society include a 3.0 GPA the past two semesters, participation in access programs like TRIO Student Support Services, and full-time enrollment at a college or university; and

WHEREAS, the TRIO Student Support Services at Miles
College has chartered the Eta Mu Chapter of the Chi Alpha Epsilon Honor Society, and the ceremony will take place on April 6, 2022, at the Miles College Chapel in Brown Hall; and

1 WHEREAS, the historical inauguration of the Eta Mu
2 Chapter at Miles College is the first ever chapter of Chi 3 Alpha Epsilon Honor Society in the State of Alabama; and

4 WHEREAS, the Eta Mu Chapter at Miles College was 5 founded and started by chapter advisor, Kerry Donnel Brackett, 6 TRIO Retention Specialist at Miles College; under the 7 direction of Miles College Director of TRIO, Don Anthony 8 Mosely; fellow Miles College TRIO staff members, Brooke 9 Yarbrough, Julius Bedford, and Brandiece Berry; and under the 10 leadership of the first female President of Miles College, 11 Bobbie Knight; and

12 WHEREAS, the charter members of the Eta Mu Chapter 13 at Miles College include Delphine Backay, James Jones, Joshua 14 Coleman, Qiana Williams, Octavia Calloway-Peters, Lasonya 15 Clarke, Uche MgBodile, Tytianna Reese, Shontel Wyatt, and
