WHEREAS, it is with profound sorrow that we note the death on December 27, 2021, of Dr. Frank Morehead Barker, Jr., at the age of 89; and

WHEREAS, his passing leaves a void in the lives of his loving family, many friends, and the entire community, where he was highly regarded; and

WHEREAS, upon graduating from Ramsay High School in 1949, Dr. Barker attended Auburn University on a Naval Reserve Officers' Training Corps Scholarship, where he played on the tennis team; after graduating college with an engineering degree, he became a Navy Jet Fighter Pilot and served during the Korean War; during his time in the Navy, he also flew with the Blue Angels as their official photographer; after a few close calls while flying off of aircraft carriers, Dr. Barker believed that God was trying to get his attention; in an

1 effort to amend his ways, he decided to attend seminary,
2 during which time he began pastoring a small church in Oxford,
3 Alabama, and for the first time, he began to question what it
4 truly meant to be a Christian; after an Air Force chaplain
5 explained that salvation was by grace, Dr. Barker's life was 6 completely transformed, and from that day forward, he lived to 7 share that news with others; to those who knew him, he 8 exemplified the life of a "dead man walking"; and

10 Alabama, to start Briarwood Church in a storefront in Cahaba
11 Heights; in 1961, he and Barbara Brown Barker were married in 12 the storefront; over the next 39 years, Dr. Barker and his 13 wife served side by side, watching God multiply their church
14 and magnify Himself through their ministry; fueled by the 15 vision of "reaching Birmingham to reach the world for Christ," 16 Dr. Barker oversaw the foundation of Briarwood Christian
17 School, Birmingham Theological Seminary, Campus Outreach, 18 Briarwood Ballet, Camp Briarwood, and numerous ministries for 19 business and medical professionals; in 1973, he was 20 instrumental in the formation of a new denomination, the 21 Presbyterian Church in America, a conservative break from the 22 mainline Presbyterian Church of the United States of America;
23 until his final breath, Dr. Barker faithfully served the Lord 24 and taught His Word; and

25 WHEREAS, he was preceded in death by his parents;
26 and his sister, Minnie Lee Barker Livingston; and

1 WHEREAS, Dr. Barker is survived by his children,
2 Anita Barnes (Billy), Frank Barker, III (Pam), and Peggy
3 Townes (Tim); 14 grandchildren; nine, plus two on the way,
4 great-grandchildren; and the thousands of people who know
5 Jesus because of his life; and
