Senate Bill 307

Committee: County and Municipal Government

Sponsor: Senator Chris Elliott

Analyst: Riley Aaron

Date: 05/16/2023

Senate Bill 307 as introduced would allow certain elected officials retired from the Teachers' Retirement System or the Employees' Retirement System to return to work with the state, a county, or incorporated municipality, without suspension of retirement benefits or accrual of additional benefits, provided that the elected official's compensation does not exceed the annual earnings limit established by law. For Calendar Year 2023, the annual earnings limit is $37,000.
