House Bill 79 as passed the House of Representatives would require the registration of "designated representatives" of certain permit holders with the Alabama Board of Pharmacy, including: (1) a fee of no less than $100, as set by board rule, for initial registration and annual renewal; and (2) late fees, not to exceed $50 per month until renewed. These provisions would increase receipts to the board by an estimated minimum of $200,000 annually.
