HJR___ HONORING ALABAMA ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS® FOR ITS 100TH ANNIVERSARY CONCLUDING IN 2022.

WHEREAS, in 1922, the Alabama Association of REALTORS® (AAR) received its charter and unanimously elected A.C. Montgomery as its first President; Mr. Montgomery was also the Regional Director for Alabama for the National Association of REALTORS®; and

WHEREAS, at the time AAR received its charter, there was a necessity for a state organization that represented local real estate boards to speak with one voice in order to advocate to the State Legislature to pass legislation protecting private property owners, as well as REALTORS® and the organization itself; and

WHEREAS, some of the association's achievements include passing legislation that benefits property owners and small business owners across Alabama; AAR continues to work cooperatively with government leaders, the financial industry, homebuilders, and health officials to mitigate obstacles to the buying and selling of real property; and

WHEREAS, AAR has served as the voice of real estate in Alabama for over 100 years and has continued to succeed in protecting private property rights and promoting home ownership; as these past 100 years have shown, AAR's strength lies in its adaptability to change and grow with
