26 generous spirit and willingness to help, some of Jacori's 27 acts of kindness include running errands for his 28 grandparents, mowing his elderly neighbors' yards, giving 29 his classmates rides home, and volunteering at his church; 30 and

31 WHEREAS, Jacori was diagnosed with Tourette Syndrome
32 at the young age of four and has never let the condition
33 stop him from working hard, helping others, and enjoying his 34 interests; when he was 10, his father was diagnosed with 35 renal failure and placed on dialysis; Jacori remained 36 positive and prayed for his father to receive a kidney; he 37 stepped up and did more work to make life easier for his 38 father and to keep the household running; a few years later, 39 his father received a kidney; and

40 WHEREAS, Jacori is a shining light in his studies,
41 with his family, and in his community; he diligently 42 maintains his grades and is always ready to assist those in 43 need; for his commitment to academics, family, and community
44 service, he has been recognized by Alabama Public Television
45 as one of its five Young Heroes of Alabama for 2023; now 46 therefore,

47 BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA, BOTH 48 HOUSES THEREOF CONCURRING, That Jacori Gaddis is highly 49 commended for being named one of Alabama Public Television's
50 Young Heroes of Alabama for 2023, and we hereby dedicate
