

HR211 INTRODUCED

1 JCUXNN-1
2 By Representatives Bedsole, Paschal, Ellis
3 RFD:
4 First Read: 18-May-23
5 2023 Regular Session

1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10
11
12
13
14
15
16
17
18
19
20
21
22
23
24
25
26
27
28

HR_____ CONGRATULATING THE EVANGEL CHRISTIAN SCHOOL GIRLS VARSITY SOFTBALL TEAM FOR WINNING THE 2023 NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF CHRISTIAN ATHLETES NATIONAL SOFTBALL TOURNAMENT.

WHEREAS, highest congratulations are herein proudly presented to the Evangel Christian School Girls Varsity Softball Team for winning the 2023 National Association of Christian Athletes National Softball Tournament in East Ridge, Tennessee, on May 12, 2023; and

WHEREAS, through teamwork, diligence, and a commitment to excellence, the Evangel Christian School Girls Varsity Softball Team victoriously won the 2023 National Association of Christian Athletes National Softball Tournament with a record of five wins and no losses, outscoring their opponents 53-3; senior team member, Lauren Smith, pitched 22 innings in the tournament and was the winning pitcher in all five games; she also had the top team batting average for the tournament with .500, the highest season batting average with .500, and the lowest season pitching earned run average with 1.56; and

WHEREAS, the talented team members include Rileigh Johnstone, Ivie Littleton, Lauren Smith, Alyssa Goodson, Averie Littleton, Baylee Knight, Ella Smith, Emily Johnson, Gracelynn Shackelford, Gracie Vines, Halle Wells, Kirby

HR211 INTRODUCED

29 Windsor, Lilli Whitfield, Sammie Myers, Scout Thornton,
30 Willa Bedsole, and Raylee Evans; and

31 WHEREAS, expert guidance and leadership were provided
32 by Head Coach David Littleton and Assistant Coach Benji
33 Wilson; and

34 WHEREAS, the members of the Evangel Christian School
35 Girls Varsity Softball Team are inspirations to many in 36 their communities and beyond; now therefore,

37 BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE
38 LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA, That the Evangel Christian School
39 Girls Varsity Softball Team is highly congratulated for
40 winning the 2023 National Association of Christian Athletes
41 National Softball Tournament, and we hereby dedicate this
42 resolution to the team members, head coach, and assistant
43 coach with utmost admiration, along with sincere best wishes
44 for continued success in all future endeavors.