House Bill 163

Committee: Finance and Taxation Education Sponsor: Representative Cynthia Almond

Analyst: John Friedenreich

Date: 04/26/2024

House Bill 163 as passed the House of Representatives would create the Alabama School of Healthcare Sciences as an independent, residential school in Demopolis, AL for academically and professionally motivated Alabama students. This bill would also create a 19-member board of trustees to govern the school and provides for powers and duties of the board. This bill would provide that board members shall receive expenses, per diem, and travel expenses in the same manner as state employees when the board is traveling on board business. Further, this bill would provide that the board, among other things, may: (1) purchase, lease, or sell land; (2) issue diplomas; (3) contract with other public agencies; (4) delegate power to the executive director; (5) prepare an annual budget; (6) pay the salaries and expenses of faculty and staff; and (7) adopt rules regarding admission.

Finally, this bill would provide that the school shall be funded by the state from monies appropriated to the school and by grants, donations, and funds from any other source. The Education Trust Fund (ETF) supplemental appropriation for Fiscal Year 2024 (House Bill 144, as Passed the House of Representatives) includes a proposed appropriation of $20 million to the Alabama School of Healthcare Sciences.
