

FISCAL NOTE

House Bill 63

Committee: Judiciary

Sponsor: Representative Jim Hill

Analyst: Peter Grogan

Date: 05/06/2024

House Bill 63 as passed the House of Representatives would reduce obligations of the Department of Corrections by an undetermined amount dependent on the number of individuals confined for a lesser period of time under the provisions of this bill than otherwise confined under current law.

This bill could correspondingly increase the obligations of the Board of Pardons and Paroles by an undetermined amount dependent on the number of individuals placed on probation and supervised by the board and the length of the probation period determined by the court, as provided by this bill.