

FISCAL NOTE

House Bill 389

Committee: Public Safety and Homeland
Security

Sponsor: Representative Shane Stringer

Analyst: Jennifer Farish

Date: 04/08/2024

House Bill 389 as introduced could increase receipts to the State General Fund by $10,000 per violation for any civil penalties levied for violation of the Second Amendment Financial Privacy Act.

This bill could also increase receipts to the Attorney General's Litigation Support Fund by an undetermined amount depending on the amount of attorney's fees and other reasonable court costs recovered from such civil action.