

FISCAL NOTE

House Bill 389

Committee: Financial Services

Sponsor: Representative Shane Stringer

Analyst: Jennifer Farish

Date: 04/15/2024

House Bill 389 as reported by the Committee on Public Safety and Homeland Security could increase receipts to the State General Fund by $10,000 per violation for any civil penalties levied for violation of the Second Amendment Financial Privacy Act.

This bill could also increase receipts to the Attorney General's Litigation Support Fund by an undetermined amount depending on the amount of attorney's fees and other reasonable court costs recovered from such civil action.