SYNOPSIS:

Under existing law there is no limit on increases in the assessed value of real and personal property.

This bill would provide for a cap on increases on Class IV property tax assessments under certain conditions.

A BILL
TO BE ENTITLED
AN ACT

Relating to property taxes; to add a new section to the Code of Alabama 1975, to provide a cap on increases on Class IV property tax assessments under certain conditions.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA:

Section 1. A new section is added to the Code of Alabama 1975, to read as follows:

(a) After each county-wide reappraisal, as provided by Article 2, Chapter 7, Title 40, Code of Alabama 1975, and the resulting assessed value of property for ad valorem tax purposes, the tax assessor shall compare the assessed value of Class IV property reappraised or reassessed to the prior year's assessed value. If the assessed value of the property

30 value of the property to not more than a three percent
31 increase in the assessed value of the property from the 32 previous year's assessed value.

33 (b) The limitations provided for in subsection (a)
34 shall not apply to a change in ownership of the property.

35 Section 2. This act shall become effective on October
36 1, 2024.
