29 handled civil rights cases, class actions, and various 30 criminal matters; he represented clients on death row, and 31 he twice argued before the Supreme Court of the United 32 States; and

33 WHEREAS, he moved to Macon, Georgia, to teach as a 34 Professor of Law at Mercer University School of Law; in 35 1986, he returned to Montgomery to accept an appointment as 36 a United States Magistrate Judge for the Middle District of 37 Alabama; he served in that capacity for 14 years; and

38 WHEREAS, in 2001, Judge Carroll relocated to 39 Birmingham, Alabama, to become Dean of his alma mater,
40 Cumberland School of Law; under his tenure, the law school
41 returned to an earlier focus on trial advocacy and improved 42 their national ranking; Judge Carroll was beloved by the 43 Samford family as a colleague, friend, and mentor; upon 44 leaving his position as Dean after 13 years, he returned to 45 the classroom until his retirement in 2022; and

46 WHEREAS, over the course of his career, Judge Carroll
47 received many honors; some of the dearest to him included
48 selection as a Community Hero Olympic Torch Bearer in 1996;
49 appointment by Chief Justice William Rehnquist of the 50 Supreme Court of the United States to serve on the Judicial 51 Conference's Advisory Committee on the Federal Rules of 52 Civil Procedure; receipt of the 2011 Chief Justice of 53 Alabama's Professionalism Award; receipt of an Award of 54 Merit in 2014 from the Alabama State Bar Association for 55 outstanding and constructive service to the legal 56 profession; receipt of the 2017 Alabama Appleseed

57 Brewer/Torbert Public Service Award; and receipt of the 2018
58 American Inns of Court Professionalism Award for the 59 Eleventh Circuit; and

60 WHEREAS, Judge Carroll was a member of and chaired
61 the Alabama Law Institute statute drafting committees, 62 providing invaluable insight on various legislative 63 projects; and

64 WHEREAS, Judge Carroll was a lifelong Catholic, and 65 he loved teaching and mentoring; he was also an athlete and 66 an avid sports fan; he competed in triathlons well into his 67 seventies, and he always seemed younger than his years; he 68 loved reading, being outdoors, watching the Atlanta Braves, 69 listening to the Rolling Stones, eating spicy food, and 70 drinking red wine; and

71 WHEREAS, Judge John Lawrence Carroll is survived by 72 his wife of 53 years, Susan Gaskins Carroll; daughter,
73 Catherine Carroll Sanders (William Parker Sanders);
74 grandsons, States Carroll Sanders and Forrest Weddell
75 Sanders; and a host of other much loved family and friends;
76 now therefore,

77 BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA, BOTH 78 HOUSES THEREOF CONCURRING, That although his presence will 79 be greatly missed, the memory of Judge John Lawrence Carroll
80 will be cherished in the hearts of all who knew and loved
81 him; his death is recorded with deep sadness, and this 82 resolution is offered in tribute to his life and service to 83 others, along with heartfelt sympathy to his family, whose 84 grief is shared by many.
