Replace lines 5 through 12 on page 1 with the following:

Under existing law, the Department of Human Resources must provide certain information from the putative father registry to any court at its request.

This bill would require the Department of Human Resources to provide certain information from the putative father registry to a licensed attorney upon his or her request, in limited circumstances relating to the adoption of a child.

Replace lines 23 through 25 on page 1 with the following:

Section 26-10C-1, Code of Alabama 1975; to require the Department of Human Resources to provide certain information from the putative father registry to a licensed attorney who requests the information, in limited circumstances; and to make nonsubstantive, technical
