(a)(1) The Alabama Justice Information Commission shall adopt rules for the submission of any report or information to ALEA as required in state or federal law.
Once a rule is adopted, any agency subject to this article that neglects or refuses to submit a report or information or perform any other act in compliance with the commission rules shall be subject to an administrative fine of one thousand dollars ($1,000), as provided in this subsection.

(2) Upon a finding of noncompliance by the commission, ALEA shall provide notice to the agency's chief executive officer.

(3) If after a 30-day period the agency remains noncompliant, the commission shall impose the fine with notice to the agency's chief executive officer. Within 30 days of receipt of the notice, the agency shall submit the payment of the fine to ALEA for deposit into the State General Fund.

(4) The commission shall assess an additional fine of one thousand dollars ($1,000) every 30 days until the agency meets the conditions of compliance.

(b) Any officer or official mentioned in this article who neglects or refuses to make any report or to do any act required in this article, with respect to any required report or information described in subsection (a), intentionally refuses to submit a report or information to ALEA or intentionally submits a false report or false information to ALEA shall be subject to prosecution for a misdemeanor and, if found guilty, may be fined not less than one hundred dollars ($100.00) nor more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000.00) and may be confined in a
