6 biology, privacy, safety, or fairness are implicated.

7 (c) (1) Nothing in this section shall be interpreted 8 as permitting or authorizing compulsory genital
9 inspections or the use of a surveillance camera or 10 monitoring device in or immediately outside of a
11 single-sex space or environment including, but not 12 limited to, a toilet, bath, or shower facility; locker
13 room; common area within such a facility or room, 14 including an area where a sink or changing table is 15 located; or other space open to the public where an 16 individual has a reasonable expectation of privacy, by a
17 public or private individual or entity.

18 (2) For the purposes of this subsection, a
19 "monitoring device" is a digital video or audio streaming 20 or recording device that monitors activity in an area or 21 building using a system in which signals are transmitted 22 from a video camera or microphone to the receivers by 23 cables or wirelessly, forming a closed circuit, and a 24 "reasonable expectation of privacy" is an individual's

25 reasonable belief, under the circumstances, that the 26 individual can disrobe or partially disrobe in privacy
27 without being concerned that the individual is being 28 viewed, photographed, or filmed when doing so.
