Senate Bill 29

Committee: County and Municipal Government Sponsor: Senator Chris Elliott

Analyst: Mathieu Fuller

Date: 02/11/2025

Senate Bill 29 as reported by the Committee on County and Municipal Government would require state and local governmental bodies to respond to completed applications for certain licenses within forty-five days of receiving completed applications unless otherwise specified by state or federal law, which could increase the administrative obligations of state and local governmental bodies to review applications pursuant to the provisions of this bill.
