Senate Bill 119

Committee: ENACTED

Sponsor: Senator Will Barfoot

Analyst: Peter Grogan

Date: 06/11/2025

Senate Bill 119 (Act 2025-273) as enacted could increase the obligations of the Department of Corrections by an undetermined amount dependent upon the cost to house any parolee and probationers that violate the provisions of this act and return to the Department of Corrections to serve the balance of their sentence.

In addition, this could increase receipts to the State General Fund from fines; increase receipts to the State General Fund, county general funds and other funds to which court costs are deposited; and could increase the obligations of the State General Fund, district attorneys, the Bureau of Pardons and Paroles, the Department of Corrections, and community corrections programs by an undetermined amount dependent upon the number of persons charged with and convicted of the offenses provided by the act and the penalties imposed.
