House Bill 251

Committee: Judiciary

Sponsor: Representative Mack Butler

Analyst: Peter Grogan

Date: 04/15/2025

House Bill 251 as passed the House of Representatives could increase obligations of the Board of Pardons and Paroles, presumably, by an undetermined amount to pay the costs of sex offender treatment for certain indigent individuals pursuant to the provisions of this bill.

In addition, this bill could increase receipts to the State General Fund from fines; increase receipts to the State General Fund, county general funds and other funds to which court costs are deposited; and could increase the obligations of the State General Fund, district attorneys, the Bureau of Pardons and Paroles, the Department of Corrections, and community corrections programs by an undetermined amount dependent upon the number of persons charged with and convicted of the offenses provided by the bill and the penalties imposed.
