Senate Bill 156

Committee: Judiciary

Sponsor: Senator Will Barfoot

Analyst: Peter Grogan

Date: 03/31/2025

Senate Bill 156 as passed the Senate could increase the administrative obligations of the Unified Judicial System, the Office of Attorney General, and district attorneys to conduct reviews or hold hearings for petitions for reduced sentences as provided in this bill.

In addition, this bill could increase the administrative obligations of the Bureau of Pardons and Paroles by an undetermined amount to locate and notify certain victims of the potential for a hearing and the victim's rights related to the petition filed.

Finally, this bill could decrease the obligations of the Department of Corrections by an undetermined amount dependent on any reductions in sentences for inmates provided by this bill.

The resentencing and notification provisions of this bill shall be repealed on October 1, 2030.
