House Bill 276

Committee: Children and Senior Advocacy Sponsor: Representative Robbins

Analyst: John Friedenreich Date: 02/17/2025

House Bill 276 as introduced could increase the administrative obligations of the Attorney General to pursue deceptive trade practice actions under the provisions of this bill, which could be offset by any civil penalties received by the Attorney General for violating the Deceptive Trade Practices Act under the provisions of this bill.

Finally, this bill could increase the administrative obligations of the State Department of Education to develop recommended guidelines for the implementation of curriculum and to develop and maintain a resource bank of information pertaining to the impact of social media use by minors.
