SYNOPSIS:

This bill is The Adaline Deal Act.

This bill would prohibit hospitals, transplant hospitals, procurement organizations, health insurance providers, physicians, and other health care providers from conditioning the donation or receipt of an anatomical gift on the donor's or recipient's vaccine status.

This bill would authorize the Attorney General to enforce the prohibition, seek injunctive relief, and levy a fine against an entity or individual that violates the prohibition.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED
AN ACT

Relating to organ donation; to prohibit certain entities from conditioning the donation or receipt of an anatomical gift on the donor's or recipient's vaccine status; and to authorize the Attorney General to enforce violations of this act.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA:

Section 1. (a) This section shall be known and may be cited as The Adaline Deal Act.

HB519 INTRODUCED

(b) This section shall have the same definitions as provided in Section 22-19-161, Code of Alabama 1975, except that, for the purposes of this section, the following terms have the following meanings:

(1) VACCINE. Any biologic, DNA-based product, immunization, gene editing technology, mRNA-based product, or injectable drug used for the purpose of preventing or treating an infectious or communicable disease.

(2) VACCINE STATUS. Whether an individual has received one or more vaccines.

(c) No hospital, transplant hospital, procurement organization, health insurance provider, physician, or other health care provider may condition:

(1) The receipt of an anatomical gift or other organ donation on the recipient's vaccine status; or

(2) The donation of an anatomical gift or other organ donation on the donor's vaccine status.

(d) The Attorney General shall enforce this section and, for violations of this section, may:

(1) Seek injunctive relief to ensure compliance with this section; and

(2) Levy a fifty thousand dollar ($50,000) fine against a person that violates this section.

Section 2. This act shall become effective on October 1, 2025.
