7 WHEREAS, for generations the American Dream has been 8 a beacon of hope; and

9 WHEREAS, the American Dream embodies the ideals of 10 opportunity, prosperity, and upward mobility, promising that 11 every person should have the chance to achieve what they 12 themselves define as success and fulfillment through hard 13 work and determination; and

14 WHEREAS, many today feel as though their American 15 Dream is unattainable; and

16 WHEREAS, the American Dream belongs to all of us, not 17 just billionaires and multi-millionaires; and

19 nation have been achieved when we harnessed the strengths of 20 all people regardless of their identities to overcome our 21 greatest challenges; and

22 WHEREAS, Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI) is a
23 centuries-old movement deeply rooted in America's founding

26 policies, and initiatives that enable America to live up to 27 our Constitution's promises; and

WHEREAS, DEI principles and policies promote equal access to opportunities, foster an environment of respect and belonging, and ensure that every individual, regardless of background, can fully participate in all aspects of society; and

WHEREAS, DEI is essential to creating a society where all individuals are valued, heard, and included; and

WHEREAS, DEI is based on removing barriers to opportunity so that our merits can speak for themselves; and

WHEREAS, DEI principles and policies are committed to widening pathways to the American Dream for every community so that all people can reap the benefits of shared prosperity in our nation; and

WHEREAS, freedom of speech and expression are fundamental constitutional rights, protecting the ability of individuals to voice their ideas and opinions without interference, punishment, or retaliation by the government; and

WHEREAS, anti-DEI activists, politicians, and corporate decision-makers who attempt to prohibit DEI infringe upon the right of individuals to freely express themselves, diminish the diversity of perspectives that strengthen our society, and conflict with
