33 County Class of 2025 member; and

34 WHEREAS, Jamyracle's commitment to service is deeply
35 rooted in her desire to uplift her community; as an FFA
36 member, she launched the Alabama Black Farmers Collective in 37 2024 as her Supervised Agricultural Experience project;
38 investing in video equipment, she interviews small Black 39 businesses and Black farmers, advocating for them and 40 showcasing their contributions; she provides these 41 interviews free of charge and promotes their businesses
42 through social media; her branding, complete with a logo and 43 Facebook page, demonstrates her dedication to this mission; 44 she also participated in the 2024 Indianapolis Day of 45 Service during the National FFA Convention, clearing
46 invasive species at White River State Park; she recently 47 served as a page on the floor of the Alabama Senate; she has 48 also led discussions with elementary students about the 49 importance of farming, taught them about FFA, and 50 participated in community cleanup efforts; and

51 WHEREAS, Jamyracle's drive to serve is fueled by her
52 personal experiences; she eloquently shared her thoughts
53 about her late father, an Air Force veteran and firefighter,
54 whose passing in 2020 profoundly impacted her; she described 55 the challenges she faced and how she turned her pain into 56 passion and purpose; inspired by her father's love for

57 farming, she is now dedicating her life to supporting 58 farmers, particularly through her work with the Alabama
59 Black Farmers Collective; she aims to honor her family and 60 her father's belief in the importance of farmers by making 61 her community a better place; and

62 WHEREAS, Jamyracle's journey is a powerful reminder 63 of the importance of investing in youth and providing 64 opportunities for growth and leadership; she is a shining 65 example of how adversity can be overcome with resilience and 66 a dedication to serving others; she is a truly deserving
67 candidate for recognition as one of Alabama Public 68 Television's 2025 Young Heroes; now therefore,

69 BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE 70 LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA, That with great pride and special 71 pleasure Jamyracle Williams is heartily commended on being 72 named one of Alabama Public Television's Young Heroes of 73 2025, and best wishes are extended in all future endeavors.
