HR___ COMMENDING THE STUDENTS OF HOKES BLUFF HIGH SCHOOL FOR SERVING AT POLLING LOCATIONS DURING THE 2024 ELECTION.

WHEREAS, highest commendations are herein proudly presented to the students of Hokes Bluff High School for serving at various polling locations during the 2024 election; and

WHEREAS, Hokes Bluff students covered 11 polling places throughout the county; some of these were close to the school, including Hokes Bluff Community Center and Tillison Bend Water Authority, but many of the students traveled a great distance to serve at Mountainboro Fire Department, Lookout Mountain Community Center, and Noccalula Kiwanis Pavilion; and

WHEREAS, working at these polling places allowed the students to get to know different people and learn the method of how elections work at the grassroots level; some of their responsibilities included helping to check in voters, validate identification, and handing out ballots and helping turn them in; many of the students worked all 12 hours and then went to the courthouse to see the returns come in; and

WHEREAS, the training each year is done by Judge of Probate Scott Hassell, who organized the program; the students were trained to use the computer program that each
