4 HR_____ MOURNING THE UNTIMELY DEATH OF TRAVIS JAVON "WOOTY"
5 JACKSON.
6

7 WHEREAS, the untimely death of Mr. Travis Javon
8 "Woody" Jackson of Montgomery, Alabama, on April 11, 2025, 9 is noted with great sadness and his valuable and 10 irreplaceable life of 36 years is honored and celebrated;
11 loving husband, dedicated father, and successful
12 businessman, his death leaves a void in the lives of his 13 family, friends, and his community where he was highly 14 regarded; and

15 WHEREAS, Travis Javon Jackson, lovingly known as 16 "Woody," was born on April 9, 1989, to the late Patricia and 17 Sylvester Jackson, Sr.; raised in a faith-filled home, 18 Travis was nurtured with strong Christian values and 19 dedicated his life to Christ at a young age; and

20 WHEREAS, from an early age, Travis displayed an 21 entrepreneurial spirit, launching his first business in 22 junior high school as the "Candy Man," selling treats from 23 his book bag; driven by vision and determination, he was 24 always focused on rising above his circumstances and 25 creating a better future for himself and his family; and

26 WHEREAS, fueled by ambition, perseverance, and a keen
27 eye for fashion, Travis transformed his passion into purpose
28 by launching his first business, Rich Life Clothing; he

29 later expanded his entrepreneurial reach with the opening of 30 Rich Life Barber and Cuts, both thriving enterprises that 31 reflected his ambition, creativity, and dedication to 32 excellence; and

33 WHEREAS, On July 7th, 2020, Travis married the love
34 of his life, Quneisha Brown; their bond was further blessed
35 with the anticipated arrival of their son, Travis Javon
36 Jackson, Jr., who will join his older sister, Nakeria, in 37 carrying forward their father's legacy; and

38 WHEREAS, Travis was known for his impeccable style,
39 graceful presence, and infectious love for the dance floor;
40 he possessed a heart of gold, always ready to help others,
41 generously offering whatever he had to those in need; he 42 never met a stranger, and his radiant smile had a way of 43 lighting up every room he entered; his beautiful soul was 44 evident in the countless selfless acts of kindness he 45 extended to his loved ones and his community; and

46 WHEREAS, he is preceded in death by his parents;
47 brother, Kasdolyn Jackson; sister, Eureka Jackson;

57 Jackson (Lakandice), Sylvester Kendricks (Deon), Tavarious
58 Jackson, and Joshua Jackson; grandmother, Georgia Mae
59 Jackson; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and devoted 60 friends; and

61 WHEREAS, when one so young prematurely loses a life
62 filled with expectation and promise, his years are 63 all-the-more-treasured for having been brief; in honoring
64 Travis in death, we give permanence to his life, and rest
65 assured that his influence continues in the beloved memories
66 of his family, friends, and the community; now therefore,

67 BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE 68 LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA, That while grieving the untimely 69 death of Mr. Travis Javon "Wooty" Jackson, we gratefully 70 acknowledge the joy and innumerable blessings his life 71 brought to others, and we offer this resolution to his 72 family with profound sympathy.
