SJR___ RECOGNIZING APRIL 8, 2025, AS SCOUTING AMERICA DAY.

WHEREAS, with great pride and special pleasure, this body commends the Scouting America councils that serve Alabama for their leadership and dedication to preparing young people for adulthood and responsible citizenship: Alabama-Florida Council, Black Warrior Council, Chattahoochee Council, Greater Alabama Council, Mobile Area Council, and Tukabatchee Council; and

WHEREAS, membership in Cub Scouting, Scouts BSA, Venturing, and Career Exploring is growing across Alabama, now representative of 15,803 Scouts; and

WHEREAS, in 2024, 352 young men and women achieved the rank of Eagle Scout from all of the Alabama-based Scouts BSA Troops; these youth represent Scouting's best and will be well-equipped to serve and provide leadership to our state and the Nation; the Eagle Scout Leadership Project and service hours provided by Troops and individual Scouts represent thousands of hours each year, benefiting their hometown, local churches, hunger relief missions, and other nonprofit organizations; now therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA, BOTH HOUSES THEREOF CONCURRING, That April 8, 2025, is recognized as Scouting America Day in Alabama and this resolution is offered to the six councils that serve the State of Alabama
