| 4 | SJR CELEBRATING AND REMEMBERING THE LIFE OF FRED NALL |
| 5 | HOLLIS. |
| 6 | |
| 7 | WHEREAS, it is with heavy hearts that we recognize |
| 8 | the passing of Fred Nall Hollis, who departed this world on |
| 9 | September 14, 2024, at the age of 76, leaving behind an |
| 10 | internationally adored collection of surrealist artwork that |
| 11 | has inspired and awed admirers around the globe; and |
| 12 | WHEREAS, Mr. Hollis, known the world over as Nall, |
| 13 | was born in the Wiregrass town of Troy, Alabama, on April |
| 14 | 21, 1948, the only son of Joe Frost Hollis and Mary Winfred |
| 15 | Nall Hollis; from an early age, Nall demonstrated an unusual |
| 16 | talent in the arts and seemed destined to a creative |
| 17 | calling; and |
| 18 | WHEREAS, Nall graduated from The University of |
| 19 | Alabama in 1970 with a degree in fine arts and headed for |
| 20 | New York City; after a short time, he became convinced that |
| 21 | Europe would give him the exposure he needed to move |
| 22 | forward, and in 1971, he was accepted into the famous École |
| 23 | des Beaux-Arts in Paris, France, from which he graduated |
| 24 | first in his class; he then launched into what would become |
| 25 | the years that molded and shaped his creative vision; and |
| 26 | WHEREAS, during his years in Europe, Nall was under |
| 27 | the tutelage of surrealist painter Salvador Dali, whom he |
| 28 | claimed validated his audacity, formed a close friendship |

- 29 with African American writer James Baldwin, and fostered
- 30 relationships with important patrons; he refined a style
- 31 highly influenced by French artist Gustav-Adolph Mossa, and
- 32 his extensive travels throughout the Middle East, North
- 33 Africa, India, and Mexico in the mid-1970s gave him varied
- 34 perspectives and experiences and shaped the direction of his
- 35 paintings and drawings; and
- 36 WHEREAS, by the end of the 1970s, Nall had earned
- 37 critical acclaim in Europe in large part because of two
- 38 challenging and important works: The Last Supper and his
- 39 32-piece "Alice in Wonderland" series which brought
- 40 attention to not only Nall's unique style but the emergence
- of an important new artist on the European cultural
- 42 landscape; and
- WHEREAS, as he gained access to significant centers
- 44 of the art world and elite European social circles, he
- 45 attracted more high-profile patrons, and related portraiture
- of celebrities became an important extension of his work;
- 47 Nall's portrait work moved his notoriety in Europe to a much
- 48 higher level; and
- WHEREAS, Nall's success allowed him to purchase and
- 50 renovate the twelfth-century former studio of Jean Dubuffet,
- founder of the Art Brut movement, in Vence, France, just
- 52 northwest of Nice; this became Nall's home, studio, gallery,
- 53 gathering spot for other artists, and an educational center
- for young interns; the compound came to be known as the Nall
- 55 Art Association; and
- 56 WHEREAS, he began inviting numerous students and

57 artists from Alabama to his French studio to work, learn, and broaden their cultural awareness, a tie to his home 58 59 state that continued to grow through the 1990s as Nall made more frequent trips to Alabama to strengthen ties with a 60 61 broader range of Alabama artists; and WHEREAS, Nall was inspired to create the exhibition 62 63 Alabama Art 2000 with help from the Alabama State Council on 64 the Arts which opened at the Montgomery Museum of Fine Arts 65 to critical acclaim and opened the door to cultural 66 exchanges between Alabama and Europe; and 67 WHEREAS, Nall's fame both at home and abroad continued to grow when he was hired to design the sets and 68 69 costumes for two productions of the world-renowned Puccini 70 Opera Festival and create the design for two new tableware 71 lines for Haviland China; and 72 WHEREAS, one of the more ambitious and challenging 73 projects of his career came in 2006 with the launch of the exhibition Violata Pax, or Stations of the Cross of 74 75 Humanity, a collaboration with the Catholic Church, Pope 76 Benedict XVI, and the Franciscan Order in Assisi; the 77 multilocation, multimedia works included paintings, 78 sculpture, weaving, and decorative furniture that all 79 contributed to the theme of addressing the historical 80 conflicts that plague humanity; the main site of the 81 exhibition was the Basilica of St. Francis of Assisi, one of 82 the most sacred sites in all of Europe; other components of 83 the exhibition were also shown in Pietrasanta, Italy; 84 Menton, France; the Principality of Monaco; and in Alabama

- 85 at the Mobile Museum of Art; and
- WHEREAS, in 2016, Nall returned to Alabama and
- 87 established a permanent residence, studio, gallery, and
- 88 warehouse in Fairhope; during his time in Baldwin County,
- 89 Nall made friendships and connections with the communities
- 90 across the county by donating his time and talent to inspire
- 91 artists of all ages and abilities; and
- 92 WHEREAS, with thoughts of leaving his artistic legacy
- 93 to an appropriate location in Alabama, he helped imagine
- 94 into life the new International Arts Center at Troy
- 95 University which includes the Nall Museum, dedicated on
- 96 November 6, 2016, on the Troy campus; this tribute to Fred
- 97 Nall Hollis is open to the public and successfully captures
- 98 the magnitude, significance, and excellence of a truly
- 99 outstanding Alabama artist; and
- 100 WHEREAS, his friendly demeanor and genuine kindness
- 101 endeared him to many, and Fred Nall Hollis leaves behind a
- 102 legacy which will long endure the passage of time and will
- 103 remain as a comforting memory to all who were privileged to
- 104 have known such an amazing and unique man; now therefore,
- 105 BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA, BOTH
- 106 HOUSES THEREOF CONCURRING, That we honor the memory of Fred
- 107 Nall Hollis, and this resolution is offered by
- 108 Representative Jennifer Fidler and Senator Chris Elliott in
- 109 tribute to an extraordinary individual whose life
- 110 exemplified dedication, integrity, and kindness, and we
- 111 extend our deepest condolences to his family and friends as
- they grieve the loss of a truly remarkable man.

| 113 | BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That this resolution be |
| 114 | appropriately presented to the family of Fred Nall Hollis as |
| 115 | a token of our sympathy and a symbol of our deep respect for |
| 116 | his memory. |
