House Bill 381

Committee: Fiscal Responsibility and Economic Development

Sponsor: Representative David Faulkner

Analyst: Mathieu Fuller

Date: 03/17/2026

House Bill 381 as reported by the Committee on Fiscal Responsibility and Economic Development would increase the obligations of the Alabama Emergency Management Agency (EMA) by an EMA-estimated $227,180 annually to issue emergency preparedness licenses to camp operators, as well as: (1) creating and maintaining a digital database with approved emergency plans from every camp; (2) maintaining a list of camps with emergency preparedness licenses on the EMA website; (3) considering applications and appeals and providing written explanations for denials of licenses; (4) inspecting camps to verify compliance with the provisions of this bill; and (5) adopting rules and regulations to administer the provisions of this bill.

This bill could also increase the obligations of the Alabama Department of Public Health, Alabama Department of Economic and Community Affairs, and the Alabama Law Enforcement Agency, beginning in Fiscal Year 2026 and ending in Fiscal Year 2029, to reimburse their respective members of the Youth Camp Safety Advisory Council for costs associated with attending council meetings.
