House Bill 161

Committee: Children and Youth Health

Sponsor: Representative Chris Sells

Analyst: Jennifer Farish

Date: 01/26/2026

House Bill 161 as passed the House of Representatives could increase the administrative obligations of the Attorney General for the enforcement of certain consumer protections regarding age verification, parental notification, and data protection, as provided by this bill; however, these obligations may be offset by any damages or attorney's fees that are recovered from violators of the provisions of this bill and retained by the Attorney General.
