AN ACT

16

17 To propose an amendment to the Constitution of Alabama
18 of 2022, relating to Fayette County, to authorize a qualified
19 taxpayer 65 years of age or older to claim a senior property
20 tax exemption for real property owned in the county under 21 certain conditions.

22 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA:

23                   Section 1. The following amendment to the Constitution
24   of Alabama of 2022, is proposed:

25 PROPOSED AMENDMENT

26 (a) In Fayette County, an individual 65 years of age or
27 older may claim a senior property tax exemption for ad valorem
28 tax purposes on real property located in the county which is

29 owned by the individual, classified as single-family
30 owner-occupied residential property, and used as the principal
31 place of residence of the individual for not less than five 32 years immediately prior to the tax year for which the 33 individual first claims the senior property tax exemption. The 34 senior property tax exemption shall freeze the assessed value
35 of the property for the year immediately prior to claiming the 36 exemption.

37 (b) The following provisions shall apply to the 38 individual claiming the senior property tax exemption:

39 (1) The taxpayer shall continue to receive the senior 40 property tax exemption as long as the taxpayer continues to 41 use the property as his or her principal place of residence.

42 (2) The individual shall continue to be eligible to 43 claim a homestead exemption and any other exemption authorized
44 by law on the property.

45 (3) The property shall continue to be subject to any 46 millage rate changes on the property.

47 (4) The assessed value of any additions to the property
48 after claiming the senior property tax exemption shall be
49 added to the assessed value of the property and subject to ad
50 valorem tax based on the increase in the assessed value of the 51 addition after the taxpayer claims the senior property tax
52 exemption.

53 (5) This exemption may be claimed beginning October 1,
54 2027.

55 (6) This exemption must be claimed in writing with the 56 Fayette County Revenue Commissioner between October 1 and 57 December 31.

Upon ratification of this constitutional amendment, the Code Commissioner shall number and place this amendment as appropriate in the constitution omitting this instructional paragraph and may make the following nonsubstantive revisions: change capitalization, hierarchy, spelling, and punctuation for purposes of style and uniformity; correct manifest grammatical, clerical, and typographical errors; revise internal or external citations and cross-references; harmonize language; and translate effective dates.

67 END PROPOSED AMENDMENT

76                   "Relating to Fayette County, proposing an amendment to 77 the Constitution of Alabama of 2022, to authorize a qualified
78 taxpayer 65 years of age or older to claim a senior property
79 tax exemption for real property under certain conditions.
