SYNOPSIS:

State ethics law requires a candidate to file a statement of economic interests with the State Ethics Commission for the previous year within five days after the individual qualifies as a candidate, but does not require an additional statement if a statement is already on file with the commission. However, the law does require a candidate who has already filed a statement to provide proof to the commission of the previous filing.

This bill would eliminate the requirement that a candidate who has already filed a statement of economic interests notify the State Ethics Commission of this fact upon qualifying for candidacy.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED
AN ACT

Relating to ethics, to amend Section 36-25-15, Code of Alabama 1975, to eliminate a requirement that a candidate who has already filed a statement of economic interests notify the State Ethics Commission of this fact.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA:

HB472 INTRODUCED

Section 1. Section 36-25-15, Code of Alabama 1975, as last amended by Act 2025-282 of the 2025 Regular Session, is amended to read as follows:

"§36-25-15

(a) Candidates at every level of government shall file a completed statement of economic interests for the previous calendar year with the State Ethics Commission: (i) not more than five days after the deadline to file a declaration of candidacy as provided in Section 17-13-5, or in the case of an independent candidate, not more than five days after the date of the first primary election; or (ii) for a candidate for municipal office, not more than five days after the deadline for the candidate to file his or her qualifying papers with the appropriate election official. Nothing in this section shall be deemed to require a second filing of the individual's statement of economic interests if a current statement of economic interests is on file with the commission. ~~If a candidate has already filed a current statement of economic interests for a reason other than his or her candidacy, the candidate, by the deadline provided by this subsection, shall provide proof to the commission that a current statement has already been submitted or file a new or amended statement.~~

(b) Each election official who receives a declaration of candidacy or petition to appear on the ballot for election from a candidate, within five days of the receipt, shall notify the commission of the name of the candidate, as defined in this chapter, and the date on which the individual became a candidate. The commission, within five business days of the filing deadline described in subsection (a), shall notify the election official whether the candidate has complied with this section. If the commission's notification indicates the candidate has not complied with this section, the election official shall immediately notify the candidate, and the candidate shall have five additional days to provide evidence to the election official that the candidate has filed a statement of economic interests in compliance with this section.

(c) Other provisions of the law notwithstanding, if a candidate does not submit a statement of economic interests or when applicable, an amended statement of economic interests in accordance with the requirements of this chapter, the name of the individual shall not appear on the ballot and the candidate shall be deemed not qualified as a candidate in that election. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the commission, for good cause shown, may allow the candidate an additional five days to file the statement of economic interests. If a candidate is deemed not qualified, the appropriate election official shall remove the name of the candidate from the ballot."

Section 2. This act shall become effective immediately.
