4 MOURNING THE DEATH AND CELEBRATING THE LIFE OF RONNIE DELL
5 JOINER.
6

7 WHEREAS, it is with profound sadness that we note the 8 death of Ronnie Dell Joiner of Rockford, Alabama, on 9 February 2, 2026, at the age of 71; and

10 WHEREAS, he will be remembered as a devoted husband, 11 loving father, and proud grandfather; Ronnie demonstrated an 12 unwavering commitment to faith, family, country, and 13 community; and

14 WHEREAS, Ronnie was born in Tallapoosa County, and 15 lived a life defined by hard work and service; he proudly
16 served in the United States Army Reserves and Alabama
17 National Guard for 34 years, including his deployment during 18 Operation Enduring Freedom in Iraq; throughout his military 19 career, he earned numerous medals and honors and retired 20 with distinction as a First Sergeant; and

21 WHEREAS, for more than 50 years, Ronnie built an 22 impressive career in construction and home building, earning 23 a reputation for craftsmanship, integrity, and dedication;
24 and

25 WHEREAS, his life was marked by selfless service to 26 others; he was a founding member of the Kellyton Town
27 Council, served on the Town of Rockford Water and Gas Board, 28 was a member of Rockford Masonic Lodge #137, served on the

29 Rockford Cemetery Board, and held the position of Vice 30 President of the Coosa County Historical Society; he was 31 also a proud member of the Executive Committee of the Coosa
32 County Republican Party and the Veterans of Foreign Wars;
33 and

34 WHEREAS, Ronnie served eight years as Coosa County
35 Commissioner for District 4, during which time he played a 36 vital role in establishing the county's first-ever 37 countywide ambulance service and extending water services to 38 the Richville community, efforts that continue to benefit 39 countless families; and

40 WHEREAS, he worked tirelessly throughout his life and 41 believed deeply in earning everything through honest labor; 42 known for his strong work ethic and selfless heart, he was 43 always willing to help anyone in need, whether through his 44 craftsmanship, leadership, or quiet acts of kindness; and

45 WHEREAS, Ronnie had a deep appreciation for the past
46 and often shared stories and knowledge with those around 47 him; he participated in historical reenactments and could 48 frequently be found restoring older homes, preserving log 49 cabins, or admiring unique finds while antiquing with his 50 wife; his love of history was matched only by his love of 51 family and community; and

52 WHEREAS, he was preceded in death by his father,
53 O'Dell Joiner; sister, Janelle Dillard; and brother, Benny
54 Joiner; he is survived by his loving wife, Jennifer Johnson
55 Joiner; mother, Janet Sue Nolen; sister, Linda Andrews;
