HJR___ COMMENDING MOLLY MEADOWS ON THE OCCASION OF HER RETIREMENT.

WHEREAS, it is with profound appreciation and highest esteem that Molly Meadows is honored for her exceptional dedication, commitment, and professionalism throughout her tenure serving Houston County, Alabama, for nearly four decades; and

WHEREAS, Molly Meadows was first appointed by Albert McDonald, Secretary of Agriculture under the Governor Guy Hunt Administration, in 1987; she served through 10 cycles for presidential, gubernatorial, and local elections with distinction as Chairman of the Board of Registrars in Houston County, contributing significantly to maintaining the integrity of the voter registration process and encouragement of every person's right to vote; and

WHEREAS, she has exemplified the highest standards of public service, good character, and servant leadership, making the voter registration process available and accessible for all residents of Houston County; and

WHEREAS, Molly was married for 58 years to Robert Brook "Bo" Meadows before he passed in 2018; Mr. Meadows worked in the business license division of the Houston County Judge of Probate's Office; both Molly and Bo were involved in civic and community service; Molly has a son,
